Security Officer Screen DEVELOPMENT COMMENTS

---

Evaluating What Is Said: (Communicating With Clients) SRV-7

Situational Risk

Because of their focused thinking, they may have difficulty correctly interpreting what others are saying leading them to be either too optimistic or skeptical and biased.

Developing A Response: (Communicating With Clients) SRV-8A

Situational Risk

Their strong sense of compassion and concern for others can cause them to be too subjective, to be too concerned about meeting the needs and interests of others.

Self Esteem: (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-11D

Situational Risk

Their tendency to depreciate their inner worth and feel a need to constantly measure up can lead them to promise more than they can deliver and to have difficulty staying in control.

Self Assessment: (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-12

Situational Risk

They tend to bite off more than they can chew, overlook their own potential for mistakes and have difficulty maintaining consistent confidence.

Sensitivity To Others (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-15A

Situational Risk

Their concern about meeting needs and interests of clients can lead them to be too sensitive about what others think and have difficulty handling objections and difficult situations.

Attention To Policies, Procedures: (Job Rel. Attitudes) SRV-18D

Situational Risk

Their perfectionistic need for order and structure can lead them to dogmatically insist on obeying rules, policies and procedures to the letter of the law and without exception.

Meeting Schedules And Deadlines: (Job Related Attitudes) SRV-19A

Situational Risk

They have a strong sense of perfection and idealism which can lead them to very perfectionistic, insistent attitudes toward their schedules and time tables.

---

Evaluating To Do: (Problem Solving Capacity) SRV-21

Situational Risk

Their thinking can become clouded either by excess attention or lack of attention to people, results or structure which can restrict their ability to make objective, reliable decisions.

Attention To Concrete Detail: (Problem Solving Capacity) SRV-22B

Real Risk

Their compulsion for seeing things in an unconventional and possibly creative manner can cause them to overlook concrete detail.

Role Satisfaction: (Personal Work Attitudes) SRV-26B

Real Risk

They are currently in social/role transition uncertain about what they want to do and feeling frustrated and dissatisfied about their current circumstances.

Consistency: (Personal Work Attitudes) SRV- 0A

Real Risk

A combination of a compulsive need to push ahead and a feeling of frustration and dissatisfaction about their current circumstances can lead to inconsistencies in their decisions.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Evaluating What Is Said: (Communicating With Clients) SRV-7

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Spend too much time in nonproductive activities dealing with unimportant issues.
2. Be unable to read need signals from clients or have difficulty correctly seeing and understanding the crucial issues and genuine concerns.
3. Impose preset, rigid solutions which either discount or overlook the genuine client needs and interests.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Require them to interview you as a client with a problem. Test their ability to ask key questions, to be responsive to your concerns and to keep the interview on track. Create distractions to challenge their ability to keep the interview on track and handle crucial issues.
2. Ask them to describe what they see as the key steps in the service process. Require them to demonstrate how these steps work to benefit both the client and the organization.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Developing A Response: (Communicating With Clients) SRV-8A

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Spend too much time and energy trying to satisfy or please clients.
2. Overlook or delay controversial or confrontational issues.
3. Promise more than they or the organization can deliver or avoid telling the client about issues which they find too difficult or to explain.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Ask them to describe a typical service call. As they describe the situation, test their ability to stay focused, to handle personal issues without becoming too involved and to keep the process on track.
2. Spend more time than is necessary on personal issues. Keep them talking about unrelated issues. Test their ability to get around these distractions and keep the interview on track.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Self Esteem: (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-11D

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Underestimate their worth, blow up their flaws and imperfections.
2. Promise more than they can deliver.
3. Avoid difficult issues and respond impulsively to those issues when they must confront them.
4. Spend too much time with clients who make them feel comfortable.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Give them a service problem to handle. During their assessment, aggressively challenge their thinking, disagree with their recommendations. Test their willingness and ability to handle your criticisms.
2. Ask them to evaluate the phrase 'The client is always right'. After their response, use examples which illustrate problems where the client is in the wrong, is extremely upset with the organization and is acting in an aggressive manner. Require them to be specific about how they would handle the client complaints.

---

Self Assessment: (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-12

2. Have difficulty handling difficult or confrontational issues without becoming either emotional or aggressive.
3. Lack consistency shifting from feelings of confidence and comfort to uncertainty and indecision.
4. Have difficulty understanding seeing their mistakes or understanding what they did wrong.

Interview Comments

The Following Steps Are Recommended:

1. Give them a typical service problem involving a client complaint. Require them to describe how they would handle the problem. Interrupt them constantly, aggressively challenge their thinking and require them to defend their solutions to the problem.
2. Ask them to describe the typical type of client who would make a complaint against them.
3. Make certain that you do not hype them about the job. Require them to convince you why you should hire them.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Sensitivity To Others: (Handling Client Rejection) SRV-15A

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Put off objections, decisions and confrontations which make them feel uncomfortable or which threaten them.
2. Do more than is necessary to take care of clients.
3. Become too sensitive to personal criticism.
4. Be distracted by personal issues which do not relate to client issues.

Interview Comments

The Following Steps Are Recommended:

1. Give them a typical client problem to handle. You play the role of the client. Use personal issues and small talk to distract them from handling the problem. Disagree with them and challenge their thinking to test their ability to handle difficult issues.
2. Ask them to describe their strengths and weaknesses. Pick out at least one of the weak points and suggest that their problem could be a major problem in your organization. Test their ability to handle the criticism and defend their ability to overcome any weak points and perform in your organization.

---

Attention To Policies And Procedures: (Job Related Attitudes) SRV-18D

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Be impatient and frustrated with a world that cannot meet their preconditions.
2. Be A rulebound person preoccupied with conformity to rules, standards and patterns, to principles or consistency and constancy and to organizational rules, goals, policies and procedures.
3. Become preoccupied with excessive feelings of commitment, duty, and unswerving loyalty, to ideal standards.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Ask them to respond to client problems which do not fit their interpretation of how things should be. Test their willingness and ability to entertain ideas and ways of doing things other than their own.
2. Give them a list of service tasks and ask them to prioritize the list. Challenge their reasons, potentially aggressively. Test their ability to remain objective and calm.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Meeting Schedules And Deadlines: (Job Related Attitudes) SRV-19A

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Delay decisions and actions as they seek to measure the world against ideal standards.
2. Rationalize that their way of thinking is right regardless of evidence or circumstances.
3. Resist change, especially change which forces them to rethink their preset ideas.
4. Become so preoccupied with the future that they lose touch with the present.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Assign them a typical service problem in your organization. Ask them to evaluate the problem and write down a list of prioritized solutions. Set a time limit and interrupt them constantly during the process.
2. Ask them to list the most important obligations of a service representative. Use an illustration which creates a problem which makes them apply these obligations and choose between their thinking and the client's needs.

---

1. Become excited about new or large projects before they have completed complete current projects.
2. Overexert themselves to try to complete a project and many times simply run out of gas.
3. Bite off more than they can chew.
4. Feel despair and frustration when they cannot make things work out as expected.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Give him a service work example in which the work of the service representatives is not getting done on time and the work is falling below standard. Have them evaluate the problems and determine what can be done to remedy the problems.
2. Give them a series of service tasks to evaluate. Ask them to prioritize the list and build an action plan for getting things done.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Personal Work Attitudes: (Role Satisfaction) SRV-26B

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Be inconsistent in their actions and decisions.
2. Overlook opportunities in their current environment.
3. Tend to shift from a compulsive need to be doing things to a lack of urgency to get things done.
4. Tend to develop feelings of boredom or lack of challenge in their current situation.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Ask them to picture themselves in your service work environment. Require them to describe the tasks they would enjoy, the tasks that would not be appealing and the issues which would be priorities for them.
2. Ask them to describe their feelings of frustration and uncertainty about their social/role image. Explore how these frustrations would not be present in your organization.
3. Ask them to describe the environment which is best for them. Require them to include items about authority, responsibility as well as specific work tasks and physical surroundings.

Security Officer Screen INTERVIEW GUIDES

---

Personal Work Attitudes: (Consistency) SRV- 0A

The Problem

They tend to:

1. Shift from setting goals which are unrealistic or goals which are not challenging. In either case, they may lose interest or become distracted by new directions.
2. Set goals which are not rewarding. They are likely to not gain a sense of satisfaction, fulfillment or achievement by attaining their goals.
3. Shift from demanding too much out of themselves to demanding too little.

Interview Comments

The following steps are recommended:

1. Ask them to describe their past successes and failures. Require them to relate both their successes and mistakes to your current service position.
2. Ask them to describe a normal day's activities for them as a service representative highlighting what they plan to do, what obstacles would get in their way and what they would propose to do about them.
3. Ask them to describe what motivates them, what they are looking for in a job and what makes them feel satisfied and fulfilled.
